Mia Kivinen

Bio:

Mia Kivinen is a Helsinki-based lighting designer and curator specializing in light art. She holds a master's degree in lighting design from the Theatre Academy and a master's degree in curation from the Academy of Fine Arts of Finland. Kivinen is a founding member of the Finnish light art society FLASH and has played a key role in the first two FLASH biennials and the international light art curators' FLASH Residency. She has curated light art mainly for public or otherwise non-exhibition spaces. Kivinen has extensive experience in theatre and media art organizations and networks. Building community is an essential part of her work both nationally and internationally. She teaches lighting design and light art mainly at the University of the Arts Helsinki and gives lectures on light art at various events and to all kinds of audiences. Kivinen is particularly interested in the boundaries of light art and its fusion and overlap with other visual art genres.
